Official Program

Morehead State

Henry Sykes
Interception Leader

Joe Huenefeld
Versatile Lineman

Leon Cody
Eagle Guard

Not since 1947 have Morehead State University's football Eagles had two ties in one season, but the 1977 Eagles stand 2-3-2 with three games remaining.

The last two Saturdays have been heartbreakers for the Eagles, who dropped a 24-22 decision to Tennessee Tech on Oct. 22 and tied Western Kentucky 20-20 last weekend.

The two-point loss to TTU resulted when Golden Eagle running back Cecil Fore caught a TD pass with five seconds remaining in the game. The Tech win overshadowed a record-breaking offensive performance by MSU.

The Eagles came from behind in the final minute to tie the score. With the Eagles trailing 20-12, Phil Simms hit Dorron Hunter for a touchdown and a two-point conversion to tie the score. Following Henry Sykes' second interception of the game, the Eagles drove to the WKU 18-yard line, but time ran out before MSU could attempt a field goal.

Simms leads the MSU offense, having hit on 97 of 181 passes for 1,513 yards and 13 touchdowns. He is averaging 203.8 yards per game in total offense.

Receiver Larry Campassi has 32 receptions and two TD's, tight end Eddie Bishop 28 catches and five touchdowns, and receiver Dorron Hunter 22 catches and six TD's.

Freshman Dion Jenkins is leading MSU's rushers with 501 yards in 94 carries.

Tom Warren paces the Eagle defense with 63 tackles and 26 assists.

March on Down the Field

Pre-Game Show

THE MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY MARCHING BAND officially opens the day's activities with its pre-game show. Music SOCK IT TO 'EM is heard as the band comes broadside across the field and the Fightin' Eagle struts his stuff. A "Block M" is made to the west side of the field in tune with the FIGHT SONG. A contemporary arrangement of AMERICA brings the band into formation for the ALMA MATER, the Invocation, and THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER. The band then moves to the north end of the field, forming a tunnel for the entrance of the Eagles to the strains of the FIGHT SONG.

Special Note

Today 16 top high school bands from five states are participating in the Blue and Gold Marching Band Championships. Competition began at 9 a.m. and will conclude during the pre-game and halftime ceremonies. Two finalists will perform between 12:30 and 12:45 and two more at the half. Awards will be presented following the halftime performances. Because of the rule limiting the amount of time that may be taken at the half, Morehead State University's Marching Band will not present a halftime show.

East Tennessee State University's Buccaneers stand 1-7 overall and 0-4 in the OVC. Their lone win came over Appalachian State of the Southern Conference.

The Bucs absorbed a 63-20 road loss at Tennessee Tech last Saturday, giving up 486 yards in total offense. ETSU was down 42-20 at the half and could not mount any offensive momentum in the final two quarters.

Split end Dennis Law was the lone bright spot for ETSU, catching four passes for 59 yards. He has 30 receptions for 460 yards and four touchdowns on the season.

Mark Hutsell and Sammy Simpson have shared the quarterbacking chores this season. Hutsell opened the campaign as the starter but injuries have kept him out of the lineup much of the time. An accomplished passer, Hutsell has hit on 52 of 98 attempts for 747 yards and four TD's. Simpson is 34 of 80 through the air for 323 yards and two TD's.

Charles Clark is the leading rusher for the Bucs with 559 yards on 84 carries for an average of 6.7 yards per carry and 93.1 yards per game.

Linebackers George Fugate and Doug Whetsel lead ETSU's defense.

Buccaneer Coach Roy Frazier, who has compiled a 14-34-2 record at ETSU, has announced his resignation, effective the end of the season.

The Bucs hold a 13-11-0 lead in the series that dates to 1933.
